Opis:

At Vivio, we are passionate about inventing the future of interactive experiences. Headquartered in San Francisco with first, fresh-opened office in Szczecin (in lovely, old-town part of the city), we are working on our first gorgeous projects for iPhone, Facebook and more.

We want to fill our beautiful new studio with brilliant people, so if you are talented, passionate and an ace in what you do - we would love to hear from You.

We are looking for Senior Designers with experience in both web and/or general graphic design space (extensive knowledge of Photoshop, Illustrator, working knowledge of Flash is as plus) - passionate about design, pixel-perfectionists, with understanding of layout and usability design. In return we offer a great package, including a competitive salary with both pension and additional bonus scheme, ownership as a part of talented, international team, focus on quality not quantity, free soda drinks and lots of fun!

If you are willing to relocate, we will cover your relocation and accomodation costs as well as help you in arranging other things after moving, so you can start feeling comfortable in new place very quickly.

Ps. We will answer to all emails.
