At Vivio, we are passionate about inventing new experiences for mobile and social web. Headquartered in San Francisco with first EU office opened in Szczecin, Poland (in lovely, old-town part of the city), we are cooking lots of cool stuff for iPhone, Facebook and more.

Our next hiring round is now open and we are looking for passionate and brilliant boys and girls to join us and help us grow our creative shop. We are always looking for the finest talents, so if you are an ace in what you do, do not hesitate to contact us, whatever our advertised “openings” are.

Currently we are looking for:

Senior Producer

Senior Developer (flash)

Senior Developer (php, mysql, ajax)

Senior Developer (c++, java, symbian)

Graphic Artist/Illustrator

In return we offer free sweets, milk and cookies.. and a little bit more:

Competitive salary with both pension and additional bonus scheme as well as stock options

Cool, friendly and extremely talented team to work with in fun and relaxing environment

Focus on quality not quantity

Flexible working hours

Relocation and accommodation support (if you are willing to relocate, we will cover your relocation and accommodation costs as well as help you in arranging other things after moving, so you can start feeling comfortable in new place very quickly)

Cold drinks, tasty coffee and organic fruit for everyone

Lots of fun, smiles and much much more!

Check out more details under
